

VOLUME XLV--NUMBER 145

[illegible]

...and it is a peculiar purpose of the ...

an attempt was made, Thursday evening, to rob the First National Bank in Seattle. A ladder was thrown up on the roof in the rear of the bank building. The suggestion is that during the struggle for the doors, the robbers turned to enter the bank from the back, and the bank guards from the rear window fired indiscriminately. But for some reason did not care to undertake the job. The robbers came into the office in the morning, for the purpose of getting

[illegible][illegible]

Presented to Capt. A. S. Mendenhall of Columbia, Mo., by Joseph Underhill, a white, black Antioch, for a reward after the vessel sprung a leak while in May, 1917.

It is a small, dark, slender, and very hardy plant, growing in the marshy places of the coast. It is a very common plant, and is found in all the marshy places of the coast. It is a very common plant, and is found in all the marshy places of the coast.

[illegible][illegible][illegible][illegible]

DRUGS AND MEDICINES.

KATANDIN
No. 3 Main St.

7-20-4, 3:10 PM, BUREAU.
 MARY McLAUGHLIN,
 AGENT,
 Front Street,

TAYLORS,
have in stock
WYLLIS

SPRING AND SUMMER WEAR.
- - - - -
10 Novelties in Trimming.
Have given us a hint and see our patterns for Kendus Long Neck.

THE WEEKLY STATE CONVENTION RECORD. LESS THAN 850 VOTES CAST. A CILMIST STRADDLE ON FIBAN 3E. Opposed to an Irrepressible Currency. Sharp Fight on the Ram Question. PILLSBURY CARRIES THE DAY. Another Runaway Republican Nominated for Governor. An Aimless and Hopeless Party. Tardy Accounting of a Small Body of Delegates.

PORTLAND, June 1. The Democratic State Convention in City Hall, Portland, this morning. The hour set was 9 o'clock, but nothing was done until ten, when the different county delegations began to assemble in different parts of the building to agree upon their candidates for committee, etc. As a quarter past ten the delegates were mostly present, the large hall being packed with delegates. Within half an hour or four hours there has been a uniform improvement in the appearance of the delegates to the Democratic State Convention, and this, like that of last year, presents a fine set of men. At half past ten John D. Andrews, Chairman of the State Committee, called the Convention to order, and nominated Charles W. Leavitt, of Bath, as temporary Chairman, and Eben Wilson, of Augusta, and E. B. Crain, of Lewiston, as Secretaries.

Mr. Leavitt spoke at some length, alluding to the coming in of May, and saying that we intended to abide by the result, but leaving the present question open until the next day. He then called the roll, and after a few minutes the roll was called for the first time. The action of the Electoral Commission was the natural outgrowth of Grant's administration, in which the Southern States were kept in a state of vassalage. The day is past when all questions can be answered by a committee of Democrats, and an administration of the Government for the people and not for the Government, a settled financial policy, so that the people can be secure by receiving compensation for the labor.

The Organization. Voted that the State Committee be constituted a committee on credentials. While waiting for the committee on credentials, the chairman called upon some one to address the meeting and many distinguished gentlemen were called for, all of whom proved absent or declined to respond. Up to this time no one has occupied the platform except the officers of the convention and a few delegates.

At eleven o'clock the committee on credentials came upon the platform and Mr. Leavitt, of Bangor, reported 703 delegates present, as follows: Aroostook, 111; Androscoggin, 60; Cumberland, 125; Franklin, 53; Hancock, 50; Kennebec, 61; Knox, 47; Lincoln, 32; Oxford, 39; Penobscot, 17; Piscataquis, 12; Sagadahoc, 39; Somerset, 60; Waldo, 34; Washington, 29; York, 100.

Committee on Resolutions. A report of five members was then taken, for the county delegations to make candidates. At 11:30 they reported a list of five persons and committee, as follows: Aroostook, J. F. Lynde, Lewiston; Androscoggin, J. F. Lynde, Lewiston; Cumberland, W. H. Lynde, Portland; Franklin, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Hancock, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Kennebec, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Knox, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Lincoln, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Oxford, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Penobscot, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Piscataquis, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Sagadahoc, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Somerset, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Waldo, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Washington, J. F. Lynde, Portland; York, J. F. Lynde, Portland.

The temporary organization was then made permanent. Voted, that all resolutions be referred to the Committee on Resolutions. At 12:15 the Convention adjourned until 2 P.M. The Convention adjourned until 2 P.M.

At 2 P.M. the Convention resumed its session. The Chairman called the roll, and after a few minutes the roll was called for the first time. The action of the Electoral Commission was the natural outgrowth of Grant's administration, in which the Southern States were kept in a state of vassalage. The day is past when all questions can be answered by a committee of Democrats, and an administration of the Government for the people and not for the Government, a settled financial policy, so that the people can be secure by receiving compensation for the labor.

The Organization. Voted that the State Committee be constituted a committee on credentials. While waiting for the committee on credentials, the chairman called upon some one to address the meeting and many distinguished gentlemen were called for, all of whom proved absent or declined to respond. Up to this time no one has occupied the platform except the officers of the convention and a few delegates.

At eleven o'clock the committee on credentials came upon the platform and Mr. Leavitt, of Bangor, reported 703 delegates present, as follows: Aroostook, 111; Androscoggin, 60; Cumberland, 125; Franklin, 53; Hancock, 50; Kennebec, 61; Knox, 47; Lincoln, 32; Oxford, 39; Penobscot, 17; Piscataquis, 12; Sagadahoc, 39; Somerset, 60; Waldo, 34; Washington, 29; York, 100.

Committee on Resolutions. A report of five members was then taken, for the county delegations to make candidates. At 11:30 they reported a list of five persons and committee, as follows: Aroostook, J. F. Lynde, Lewiston; Androscoggin, J. F. Lynde, Lewiston; Cumberland, W. H. Lynde, Portland; Franklin, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Hancock, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Kennebec, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Knox, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Lincoln, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Oxford, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Penobscot, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Piscataquis, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Sagadahoc, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Somerset, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Waldo, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Washington, J. F. Lynde, Portland; York, J. F. Lynde, Portland.

The temporary organization was then made permanent. Voted, that all resolutions be referred to the Committee on Resolutions. At 12:15 the Convention adjourned until 2 P.M. The Convention adjourned until 2 P.M.

At 2 P.M. the Convention resumed its session. The Chairman called the roll, and after a few minutes the roll was called for the first time. The action of the Electoral Commission was the natural outgrowth of Grant's administration, in which the Southern States were kept in a state of vassalage. The day is past when all questions can be answered by a committee of Democrats, and an administration of the Government for the people and not for the Government, a settled financial policy, so that the people can be secure by receiving compensation for the labor.

The Organization. Voted that the State Committee be constituted a committee on credentials. While waiting for the committee on credentials, the chairman called upon some one to address the meeting and many distinguished gentlemen were called for, all of whom proved absent or declined to respond. Up to this time no one has occupied the platform except the officers of the convention and a few delegates.

At eleven o'clock the committee on credentials came upon the platform and Mr. Leavitt, of Bangor, reported 703 delegates present, as follows: Aroostook, 111; Androscoggin, 60; Cumberland, 125; Franklin, 53; Hancock, 50; Kennebec, 61; Knox, 47; Lincoln, 32; Oxford, 39; Penobscot, 17; Piscataquis, 12; Sagadahoc, 39; Somerset, 60; Waldo, 34; Washington, 29; York, 100.

Committee on Resolutions. A report of five members was then taken, for the county delegations to make candidates. At 11:30 they reported a list of five persons and committee, as follows: Aroostook, J. F. Lynde, Lewiston; Androscoggin, J. F. Lynde, Lewiston; Cumberland, W. H. Lynde, Portland; Franklin, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Hancock, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Kennebec, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Knox, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Lincoln, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Oxford, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Penobscot, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Piscataquis, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Sagadahoc, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Somerset, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Waldo, J. F. Lynde, Portland; Washington, J. F. Lynde, Portland; York, J. F. Lynde, Portland.

The temporary organization was then made permanent. Voted, that all resolutions be referred to the Committee on Resolutions. At 12:15 the Convention adjourned until 2 P.M. The Convention adjourned until 2 P.M.

At 2 P.M. the Convention resumed its session. The Chairman called the roll, and after a few minutes the roll was called for the first time. The action of the Electoral Commission was the natural outgrowth of Grant's administration, in which the Southern States were kept in a state of vassalage. The day is past when all questions can be answered by a committee of Democrats, and an administration of the Government for the people and not for the Government, a settled financial policy, so that the people can be secure by receiving compensation for the labor.

